Charity Information

Inspiring Inclusive Communities
through Self Advocacy

About Loud and Clear QLD

Loud and Clear QLD is a self-advocacy group that champions the rights and voices of individuals with intellectual disabilities in Queensland, Australia. Committed to promoting inclusivity and empowerment, Loud and Clear QLD aims to enhance the lives of individuals to advocate for themselves, express their needs, and actively participate in decision-making that directly impacts their lives.

Loud and Clear QLD strives to inspire communities to value and respect the unique perspectives and contributions of people with intellectual disabilities, and in turn, foster a more inclusive and equitable community for all.

Loud and Clear QLD members are passionate in educating the community and social networks about the abilities of people with disabilities. Members inspire through action and leadership to achieve goals as individuals and as a self advocacy team.

Loud and Clear QLD holds regular meetings every three weeks in Nambour, located on the Sunshine Coast.

These meetings are a platform for members to engage in meaningful discussions, share valuable information, and prioritise topics that are important to them.

In addition to fostering a supportive environment for self-advocacy, these meetings also provide opportunities for members to enjoy themselves, build social networks, and establish connections within the community.

By combining both productive and enjoyable elements, Loud and Clear QLD aims to create a safe and supportive experience that enhances the well-being and sense of belonging for individuals with intellectual disabilities.
